Montana Voter Information Pamphlet

The cover photo for the Voter Information Pamphlet features Secretary of State Linda McCulloch voting in Lewis and Clark County.

Secretary of State

Dear Montana Voter,

As Americans, voting is the most fundamental right we have and Montana has a unique and proud history of voter engagement and participation. Our Montana Constitution guarantees many ways to protect our Montana heritage. Almost 45 years ago, we came together as Montanans to rewrite a Constitution that would better reflect our state and values. As the first woman elected as Secretary of State, I am proud to protect and extend those rights to all Montanans.

As Montana's Chief Election Official, I am pleased to provide the Voter Information Pamphlet to assist you in making informed decisions about the issues that will appear on the 2016 General Election ballot. I hope you will continue our state's strong legacy of voter participation, advocacy, and civic duty.

Our Montana Constitution secures the right for individuals, groups and the Legislature to propose constitutional and statutory changes to Montana law through the initiative and referendum process. This process allows for proposed changes to the law to be placed on the ballot, and voted on by Montanans.

This year's ballot will include four ballot initiatives. Please take the time to carefully read this pamphlet and to ask questions as needed. Your vote not only counts, but it has the power to initiate change in government and society. Generations of Montanans have always taken this duty in the highest regard.

Thank you for being an informed voter and a dedicated Montanan.

Linda McCulloch
Montana Secretary of State

CONSTITUTIONAL INITIATIVE NO. 116

A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

CI-116 would add a new section to the Montana Constitution establishing specific rights for crime victims. The rights enumerated include the right to participate in criminal and juvenile justice proceedings, to be notified of major developments in the criminal case, to be notified of changes to the offender's custodial status, to be present at court proceedings and provide input to the prosecutor before a plea agreement is finalized, and to be heard at plea or sentencing proceedings, or any process that may result in the offender's release. CI-116 guarantees crime victims' rights to restitution, privacy, to confer with the prosecuting attorney, and to be informed of their rights. CI-116 defines specific terms and requires no further action by the Legislature for implementation. CI-116, if passed by the electorate, will become effective immediately.

Fiscal impacts are expected for the Office of the Public Defender, Judicial Branch, Department of Corrections and local governments from passage of CI-116, but those costs could not be accurately determined at this time.

COMPLETE TEXT OF CONSTITUTIONAL INITIATIVE NO. 116

WHEREAS, the People of the State of Montana find that a crime victim in Montana is entitled to enhanced, specific, and meaningful rights to participate in criminal and youth court proceedings and enact the following new section of Article II of The Constitution of the State of Montana. The section is named for a noted victim of crime, Marsy, in whose name many states have enacted comparable reforms.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Article II of The Constitution of the State of Montana is amended by adding a new section 36 that reads:

Section 36. Rights of crime victims. (1) To preserve and protect a crime victim's right to justice, to ensure a crime victim has a meaningful role in criminal and juvenile justice systems, and to ensure that a crime victim's rights and interests are respected and protected by law in a manner no less vigorous than the protections afforded to a criminal defendant and a delinquent youth, a crime victim has the following rights, beginning at the time of victimization:

- (a) to due process and to be treated with fairness and respect for the victim's dignity;
- (b) to be free from intimidation, harassment, and abuse;
- (c) to be reasonably protected from the accused and any person acting on the accused's behalf;
- (d) to have the victim's safety and welfare considered when setting bail and making release decisions;
- (e) to prevent the disclosure of information that could be used to locate or harass the victim or that contains confidential or privileged information about the victim;
- (f) to privacy, including the right to refuse an interview, deposition, or other discovery request and to set reasonable conditions on the conduct of any interaction to which the victim consents;

(g) to receive reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of and to be present at all proceedings involving the criminal conduct, plea, sentencing, adjudication, disposition, release, or escape of the defendant or youth accused of delinquency and any proceeding implicating the rights of the victim;

(h) to be promptly notified of any release or escape of the accused;

(i) to be heard in any proceeding involving the release, plea, sentencing, disposition, adjudication, or parole of the defendant or youth accused of delinquency and any proceeding implicating the rights of the victim;

(j) to confer with the prosecuting attorney;

(k) to provide information regarding the impact the offender's conduct had on the victim for inclusion in the presentence or predisposition investigation report and to have the information considered in any sentencing or disposition recommendations submitted to the court;

(l) to receive a copy of any presentence report and any other report or record relevant to the exercise of a right of the victim, except for those portions made confidential by law;

(m) to the prompt return of the victim's property when no longer needed as evidence in the case;

(n) to full and timely restitution. All money and property collected from a person who has been ordered to make restitution must be applied first to the restitution owed to the victim before paying any amounts owed to the government.

(o) to proceedings free from unreasonable delay and to a prompt and final conclusion of the case and any related postjudgment proceedings;

(p) to be informed of the conviction, sentence, adjudication, place and time of incarceration, or other disposition of the offender, including any scheduled release date, actual release date, or escape;

(q) to be informed of clemency and expungement procedures; to provide information to the Governor, the court, any clemency board, or any other authority and to have that information considered before a decision is made; and to be notified of any decision before the release of the offender; and

(r) to be informed of the above rights and to be informed that the victim may seek the advice and assistance of an attorney with respect to the above rights. This information must be made available to the general public and provided to all crime victims on what is referred to as a Marsy's card.

(2) A victim, the victim's attorney, the victim's legal representative, or the prosecuting attorney at the request of the victim may assert and seek enforcement of the rights enumerated in this section and any other right afforded to the victim by law in any trial or appellate court or any other authority with jurisdiction over the case as a matter of right. The court or other authority shall act promptly on the request, affording a remedy by due course of law for the violation of any right. The reasons for any decision regarding disposition of a victim's right must be clearly stated on the record.

(3) This section may not be construed to deny or disparage other rights possessed by victims. This section applies to criminal and youth court proceedings, is self-executing, and requires no further action by the Legislature.

(4) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Crime" means an act defined as a felony, misdemeanor, or delinquency under state law.

(b) "Victim" means a person who suffers direct or threatened physical, psychological, or financial harm as a result of the commission or attempted commission of a crime.

(i) The term includes:

(A) a spouse, parent, grandparent, child, sibling, grandchild, or guardian of the victim;

(B) a person with a relationship to the victim that is substantially similar to a relationship described in subsection (4)(b)(i)(A); and

(C) a representative of a victim who is a minor or who is deceased, incompetent or incapacitated.

(ii) The term does not include the accused or a person who the court believes would not act in the best interests of a minor or of a victim who is deceased, incompetent or incapacitated.

CONSTITUTIONAL INITIATIVE NO. 116

ARGUMENT FOR CI-116

A 'Yes' vote on CI-116, known as Marsy's Law for Montana, will establish a Crime Victims' Bill of Rights in the Montana constitution.

Montana is one of just eighteen states that fails to provide an equal level of rights under the constitution to victims of crime. The U.S. and Montana constitutions provide those accused of crimes with due process protections, but our state constitution does not accord crime victims the right to meaningfully participate in the criminal justice process as the state prosecutes the accused.

Marsy's Law raises victims' rights to a level equal with the rights of the accused.

The rights enumerated in Marsy's Law are simple and straightforward. Victims of crime should have the right to be notified of hearings in their case, and the right to be present and be heard at those hearings. Victims should have the right to confer with the prosecuting attorney in their case and to provide input before a plea agreement is finalized.

Crime victims should have the right to privacy and to refuse unreasonable requests for discovery or the release of personal information. Victims should have the right to be notified of any changes in the custodial status of the offender in their case. These all are examples of Constitutional rights that crime victims in Montana currently do not have.

No one expects to be a victim of a crime. But when you are, you want justice, and you should have a reasonable expectation that the judicial system will hold all rights as equal. Providing victims of crime with long-overdue equal rights will be a huge step toward ensuring victims of crime are treated with dignity, notified of important legal events like bail and parole hearings, provided a voice in the process, and finally afforded an equal level of rights.

Montana's law enforcement officials and prosecutors are among the finest in the country and many of them are vocal supporters of crime victims' rights and CI-116. Unfortunately, the Montana criminal justice system is not designed with the victim in mind.

A 'Yes' vote for CI-116 is a vote to ensure that victims of crime are afforded rights on a level equal to those of the accused and convicted. A 'Yes' vote is for equal rights.

CONSTITUTIONAL INITIATIVE NO. 116

ARGUMENT AGAINST CI-116

CI-116, or Marsy's law, is not a Montana law written for Montanans. CI-116 is backed by a businessman from California and his coalition. Montana has strong laws to protect crime victims – this amendment is costly and unnecessary. To handle all the requirements of CI-116, Montana cities and counties will be forced to either cut other services to citizens, or raise taxes to pay for adding staff. Montana taxpayers will have to fund significant spending increases in the Department of Corrections and other state agencies. The out-of-state backers of CI-116 would give new rights to some people, but take rights from others.

CI-116 has a vague definition of "victim" that will include many people who are not victims at all, including people who are simply friends of actual victims. CI-116 is besieged with problems. Years of costly lawsuits will be needed to determine whether the new rights are superior to the rights being taken away or minimized. Cities and counties will have to raise local taxes to pay for this unfunded mandate.

It's clear that Montanans care about victims' rights and have acted to improve them. In 1985, Montana enacted the Treatment of Victims Act. Montanans amended the Constitution in 1998, to assure restitution to victims of crime. The sponsors of CI-116, although well-intentioned, have missed an opportunity to further advance victims' rights by improving existing laws. Instead, the sponsors propose a massive, 863-word, addition to our Constitution that contains many problems that are likely to cause more trauma to victims and setbacks to victims' existing rights.

Citizens accused of crimes are presumed innocent until proven guilty. They have a constitutional right to defend themselves and to a fair trial. CI-116 creates new victims' rights that conflict with a defendant's constitutional rights. For example, under CI-116, a victim, under the new definition, may refuse an interview with a defendant's lawyer - clearly unconstitutional. If CI-116 is approved, lawsuits will pit the victim's new rights against the civil liberties of a person who is presumed innocent. This will create uncertainty and delay within Montana's criminal justice system. Far from benefiting crime victims, this will make it harder for victims to receive justice.

Montana's cities and counties employ crime victim advocates to notify crime victims of cases and to help law enforcement keep victims safe from harm. Currently, Montana's crime victim advocates focus on victims of violent crime, including sex crimes and domestic violence. CI-116 will dilute the services local governments are able to provide to people who desperately need these services immediately after a traumatic event.

Montanans care about victims and provide services to protect victims of crime. Montana does not need this costly, confusing change.

CONSTITUTIONAL INITIATIVE NO. 116

PROPONENTS' REBUTTAL OF ARGUMENT AGAINST CI-116

What the opponents of the victims' rights amendment say and don't say speaks volumes.

They say, "Montana has strong laws to protect crime victims." Perhaps we have a different definition of "strong."

When a victim has no right to confer with a prosecutor before the prosecutor decides whether to charge a crime or to decline to charge a crime, there is no strong law to protect victims. When trial dates come and go repeatedly with long delays without regard for the impact on a victim's ability to reach closure, there is no strong law to protect victims.

They assert that the amendment's language includes a vague definition of "victim." We're unclear what's vague about it. The definition encompasses the universe of people who have lives upended by a crime.

When they say Montana's crime victim advocates focus on victims of violent crime, they are admitting that state law offers virtually no rights to victims of fraud and other property crimes.

They fail to provide any evidence to support their claim that CI-116 will result in "higher taxes" or "cuts to other services." Thirty-two states have constitutional rights for victims without the budget impacts described by the opponents. CI-116 can be implemented with no additional cost.

More to the point, shouldn't victims' rights be a budget priority? Providing rights to crime victims—on a level equal to those accused of committing the crime—should be a primary function of government.

OPPONENTS' REBUTTAL OF ARGUMENT FOR CI-116

The sponsors of Marsy's law refuse to acknowledge that current Montana law provides important rights for crime victims. The sponsors also refuse to address the increased financial impact of Marsy's law on state and local taxpayers.

Marsy's law's sponsors could work through the legislative process to improve existing laws. By proposing a constitutional amendment, the sponsors avoid a full and fair debate on proposed changes. Instead of a discussion about the costs and need for such changes and improvements in the law, the sponsors propose a constitutional amendment that will create conflicts between the rights of people accused of crime and the rights of crime victims. Instead of listening to Montanans in an open, public hearing, where the problems with Marsy's law can be fixed, the sponsors wrote a massive amendment that will take another amendment, or multiple lawsuits, to correct.

The Montana Constitution provides 7 enumerated rights for defendants, compared to 19 new rights for victims. Montana's Constitution uses 99 words to protect the rights of defendants, compared to 863 words Marsy's law uses for victims. This does not bear out the sponsor's claim that the amendment will provide "an equal level of rights" or that it is "simple." It is not simple or equal.

Marsy's law will result in costly litigation and uncertainty for crime victims. Montana simply cannot disregard the rights granted in the U.S. and Montana Constitutions.

INITIATIVE NO. 177

A LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

I-177 generally prohibits the use of traps and snares for animals on any public lands within Montana and establishes misdemeanor criminal penalties for violations of the trapping prohibitions. I-177 allows the Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks to use certain traps on public land when necessary if nonlethal methods have been tried and found ineffective. I-177 allows trapping by public employees and their agents to protect public health and safety, protect livestock and property, or conduct specified scientific and wildlife management activities. I-177, if passed by the electorate, will become effective immediately.

I-177 reduces approximately $61,380 of state funds annually, resulting from a loss of trapping license revenue. In addition, the state will incur other costs associated with monitoring wolf populations and hiring additional full-time employees at the Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks.

INITIATIVE NO. 177

ARGUMENT FOR I-177

I-177's purpose is to eliminate the dangers traps pose to people, pets and wildlife on public lands. I-177 will restrict commercial and recreational trapping to private lands, which are two-thirds of Montana's landscape. Hunting and fishing, protected by the constitution, will not be affected.

Tens of thousands of hidden traps—wire snares, steel-jawed legholds, body-crushing Conibears—present a year-round threat for all who work, hunt and recreate on public lands. Their very presence favors a single use over the legitimate rights of others to work, enjoy and feel safe in lands set aside for all taxpayers and citizens. Trapping is part of our history, but the day is gone when it maintains our livelihood or the economies of our communities.

Unlike 19th Century mountain men, trappers today drive trucks, ATV's and snowmobiles along routes many people use. Traps can be set 50 feet from trails, 30 feet from roads, and on river and creek banks. Traps are not signed. No public trails, roads or waterways are safe for a wandering child or dog.

Trapping is no longer a primary income source, yet our publicly owned animals are disappearing for markets like China and Russia. Quotas are set for Montana's bobcat, otter, fisher and swift fox, but trapping is unlimited for all other species. Killing an animal for its hide—market hunting—is what nearly exterminated the buffalo and is as unacceptable today as killing an elephant for its tusks, a bear for its gallbladder or a rhino for its horn.

Montana's tradition calls for "Fair Chase" and respect for animals, the core ethics of hunting. Trapping has no fair chase. The trapper does not see his target, the kill is far too often not quick or efficient. The suffering of the trapped animal is enormous, and can last for days. One out of four animals chews its leg off in panic and pain. Montana law is that no game animal be wasted. For every targeted fur bearer caught, an average of two more are killed and discarded. Baited traps attract any animal, including rare and protected species like eagles, owls, wolverine, lynx and fisher.

Because trapping is indiscriminate, it is not an effective management tool to control disease or populations. Healthy animals, not sick ones are lured by bait. Animals trapped are the ones that feed on rodents carrying common diseases. Limited trapping to protect livestock and property, for health and safety and for scientific and wildlife management activities is allowed under I-177.

Public lands belong to the public. The public does not have one face, one interest. For every trapper who wants to engage in that activity, on those lands, there are thousands of Montanans who value robust wildlife populations, ethical hunting practices, and freedom from the fear of hidden weapons on land that belongs to us all.

Wildlife is Montana's heritage, and our future. "The days of trapping are over," said wildlife biologist Chuck Jonkel. "It's time to preserve the animals."

INITIATIVE NO. 177

ARGUMENT AGAINST I-177

Vote NO on I-177 - It's Bad for Wildlife, Bad for Ranchers, and Bad for Montana.

Montana's rich constitutionally protected heritage of hunting, fishing and trapping, is also the most effective means for controlling dangerous predators, preventing the spread of disease and protecting wildlife and livestock from an exploding wolf population. Animal rights activists want to take these decisions away from Montana's wildlife experts. Vote NO on I-177!

Here's why I-177 is bad for Montana:

- I-177 is bad for wildlife, costly for cattle and sheep ranchers, bad for taxpayers, and even dangerous for pets and people too!
- I-177 would ban one of the most effective methods for controlling wolves, coyotes, and other predators to protect Montana's elk, moose and deer populations, as well as livestock.
- Roughly 40% of all wolves harvested in Montana were taken by trapping with nearly half taken on public lands. Without trapping on public lands, wolf numbers will skyrocket causing damage to other wildlife, livestock, and even posing a safety risk to pets and people.
- I-177 would pose a significant public health and disease risk such as rabies, plague and attacks on pets and people, especially young children.
- I-177 is being pushed by the animal rights and anti-hunting lobby whose real agenda is to ban all trapping and all hunting. Montana's expert wildlife biologists need regulated trapping to continue to protect wildlife, livestock, pets and people.
- That is why I-177 is opposed by Montana's major sportsmen's organizations, cattle and sheep ranchers, wildlife management professionals, and more.
- I-177 will cost at least $422,000 in taxpayer money every year for the Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife and Parks to do the same things that trappers currently buy a license to do.
- I-177 would not allow any trapping until after damage or even a tragedy has occurred, and even then, not until non-lethal methods have been tried and documented to be unsuccessful. Meanwhile, dangerous predator populations will continue to grow unchecked.
- Regulated trapping under existing laws is an essential tool for Montana's wildlife experts, and dates back to the time of Lewis and Clark. It is a cherished family tradition like hunting, fishing, and camping. Let's keep it that way.
- Vote No on I-177 so Animal Rights activists can't restrict our use of public lands for any reason! Montana's public lands belong to everyone, are big enough for everyone to enjoy.

Vote NO on I-177 – It's Bad for Wildlife, Bad for Ranchers, and Bad for Montana.

INITIATIVE NO. 177

PROPONENTS' REBUTTAL OF ARGUMENT AGAINST I-177

I-177 protects human health and safety, property, wildlife management and livestock. I-177 does not affect private land, two-thirds of Montana, and is hunter-supported. Indiscriminate commercial and recreational trapping endangers people, pets and wildlife, including rare and protected species. Traps maim and kill horses, cattle, sheep and game. People suffer serious injury: broken leg, amputated toes and heart attack.

Trapping on public lands costs all of us. Veterinarian bills for the dozens of pets trapped annually can be thousands of dollars each. The reintroduction of trapped-out species costs hundreds of thousands. In fact, trapping is exponentially costly to tax revenue and jobs, by pushing species like lynx and wolverine to the endangered species list, which threatens to shut down public lands to mining, timber and other industries.

The claim that I-177 will cost $422,000 annually is based on unsupported assumptions and incorrect. Data from trained, objective citizen scientists can replace unscientific information from trappers at no cost to the state.

Trapping kills animals that control disease, thus increasing disease.

Predators are self-regulating and are key for ecosystem health and the survival of many species. Trapping disrupts the natural process.

I-177 represents all Montana citizens. I-177 upholds the Public Trust Doctrine—Montana's wildlife belongs to the public.

"The leg-hold trap ... is probably the most cruel device ever invented by man and is a direct cause of inexcusable destruction and waste of our wildlife," wrote Dick Randall, a former federal trapper, in a statement to Congress in 1975.

Vote "YES" on I-177.

OPPONENTS' REBUTTAL OF ARGUMENT FOR I-177

Animal Rights Activists are just flat wrong about I-177 because it would actually INCREASE DANGERS to people, pets, and wildlife. Even current Governor Bullock declared that "Recreational trapping is important to many Montanans and is also a recognized tool for wildlife management." Governor candidate Greg Gianforte agrees I-177 would be a horrible mistake for Montana.

For example, where trapping is restricted there are increased wild animal attacks on pets and children, plus rabies and other lethal diseases, and higher government costs to control these problems. If I-177 passes, wolf numbers will skyrocket and big game populations will suffer.

The extremely limited trapping allowed under I-177 can only be done at increased tax payer expense by government employees, and then only AFTER damage to livestock and property has occurred. That is crazy!

By the way, under current law, trapping is already prohibited within National Parks and Wildlife Refuges, in many recreational areas, and near high use public trails. But that's not enough for activists who seek to eliminate sportsmen's use on ALL public lands.

Finally, advocates of I-177 cunningly quote an old trapper who used methods 50 years ago that are illegal under today's existing laws. Plus, they quote activists in Europe to justify public land restrictions in Montana. Animal rights leader Wayne Pacelle declared "We are going to use the ballot box and the democratic process to stop all hunting in the United States." Do not believe that I-177 won't affect hunting in Montana.

INITIATIVE NO. 181

A LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

I-181 establishes the Montana Biomedical Research Authority to oversee and review grant applications for the purpose of promoting the development of therapies and cures for brain diseases and injuries and mental illnesses, including Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, brain cancer, dementia, traumatic brain injury and stroke. The grants, which are funded by state general obligation bonds, can be used to pay the costs of peer-reviewed biomedical research and therapy development, recruiting scientists and students and acquiring innovative technologies at Montana biomedical research organizations. I-181 provides specifics for the Montana Biomedical Research Authority's membership, powers, staffing, grant eligibility and evaluation requirements, and reporting requirements.

I-181 authorizes the creation of state bond debts for $20 million per year for a period of ten years. State general fund costs for debt service and other expenses would be $17.38 million total for the first four years and peak at $16 million per year for fiscal years 2027-2037.

NO on Initiative I-181

COMPLETE TEXT OF INITIATIVE NO. 181

WHEREAS, with a growing population of aging citizens, Montana will be particularly hard hit in the coming decades by currently incurable diseases like Alzheimer's and related dementias. The number of Montanans with Alzheimer's disease is expected to reach 27,000 by 2025. This act will give hope to thousands of Montana families who live with the effects of this devastating disease; and

WHEREAS, by funding potentially curative, early-intervention therapies, this Act seeks to reduce the increasing costs to the state of caring for Alzheimer's patients; and

WHEREAS, organizations across Montana engaged in biomedical research have been at the forefront of biomedical research for brain disease, brain injury and mental illness. Providing a sustainable and responsible stream of funding for these organizations will allow Montana to attract and retain world-class talent, making the state a leader in the field of brain research and therapy development; and

WHEREAS, one in four Montanans suffers from a brain disease, injury or mental illness at some point in their lives. This act will eventually give thousands of Montanans suffering from brain disease, brain injury or mental illness early access to promising treatment options and experimental medications that could, in some cases, be the difference between life and death; and

WHEREAS, the biomedical research that will be funded by this act is expected to generate state revenues from royalties, patents and licensing fees that can be invested in additional medical research or used for other vital state services; and

WHEREAS, this act will create new, good-paying jobs, boosting our local economies and helping communities across the state thrive; and

WHEREAS, for all of these reasons, the people of Montana find that promoting the development of therapies and cures for brain diseases, brain injuries, mental illness and other chronic diseases is a vital public purpose.

THEREFORE, it is the intent of the people of Montana to provide funding to develop new therapies to treat and cure brain diseases, brain injuries and mental illness, to develop centers of research and clinical excellence, to provide quality jobs for Montanans and to bring world-class students and researchers into Montana.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF MONTANA:

(9) "NIH" means National Institutes of Health.

(10) "Panel of scientific consultants" means the panel of research scientists described in [section 11].

NEW SECTION. Section 4. Purpose. The purpose of the Montana Biomedical Research Authority is to oversee scientific peer review of grant applications, evaluate grant applications for grant funding, and, if appropriate, award grants to fund eligible projects that:

(1) Promote development of therapies and cures for brain diseases, brain injuries and mental illness that affect thousands of Montanans and their families;

(2) Promote biomedical research in genetics and molecular biology, the applications of which extend to a wide variety of illnesses afflicting Montanans, including cancer and diabetes;

(3) Support Montana's biomedical research organizations in attracting and retaining world-class students and faculty;

(4) Support the transformation of existing organizations into centers of research and clinical excellence so that Montanans can avoid travelling out of state to receive top-quality healthcare; and

(5) Benefit the state economy by creating quality jobs for Montanans, generating royalties, patents and licensing fees, and eventually reducing state health care costs by shifting toward early-intervention therapies for chronic diseases and injuries.

NEW SECTION. Section 5. Eligible projects.

A project is eligible for grant funding from the authority if the project consists of one or more of the following:

(1) an investigator-initiated research proposal or a pre- or post-doctoral fellowship proposal related to:

(a) development of therapies and cures, in any stage from laboratory research through clinical trials, related to brain diseases, brain injuries and mental illness, including, without limitation, Alzheimer's disease, Parkinson's disease, glioblastoma and other brain cancers, dementia, traumatic brain injury, post-traumatic stress disorder, stroke, multiple sclerosis, epilepsy, autism, depression, substance abuse and addiction, Lou Gehrig's disease, spinal cord injuries, Huntington's disease, bipolar disorder, schizophrenia and other mental illness; or

(b) biomedical research in genetics, molecular and cellular biology with applications extending to a wide variety of illnesses, including cancer and diabetes; or

(2) a proposal to transform an existing organization into a center of research and clinical excellence through:

(a) acquisition and installation of scientific equipment costing, individually or in the aggregate, at least $10,000, including any necessary improvements to the facility where the equipment will be located. Contracts for any necessary facility improvements under this paragraph must contain a provision giving preference to the employment of bona fide Montana residents in the performance of the work. Examples of eligible scientific equipment include, without limitation, microscopes, optics technology, fluorescence-activated cell sorters, PET scanners, magnetic resonance imagers and electrophysiology equipment; or

(b) recruiting leading scientists, research staff, laboratory technicians, students and other research or medical professionals.

NEW SECTION. Section 6. Eligible grantees.

The following organizations or entities are eligible to apply for and receive grant funding from the authority:

(1) Any organization engaged in biomedical research, provided that the organization:

(a) is a nonprofit organization or is controlled by one or more nonprofit organizations or is a Montana university, and

(b) is organized or incorporated in the state under Title 20, Chapter 25 or Title 35, or is headquartered in Montana; and

(c) has a proven history of administering scientific, biomedical or clinical research grants and contracts.

(2) For-profit entities engaged in biomedical research in partnership or in collaboration with any organization or organizations described under (1) above, provided that:

(a) The for-profit entity is organized or incorporated in the state under Title 35 or is headquartered in Montana;

(b) The nonprofit partner or collaborator is the grant recipient and controls distribution of the grant funds; and

(c) The grant application is for an eligible project described in [section 5(1)] and the panel of scientific consultants and the authority each make findings that the proposal to be funded has high merit and that the proposed research or therapy is likely to be accelerated as a result of the collaboration.

NEW SECTION. Section 7. Authority -- quorum -- mode of action -- expenses. (1) Seven members of the authority constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting business. Action may be taken by the authority upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members. A vacancy in the membership of the authority does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the authority.

(2) The authority shall hold at least two public meetings per year, which may be held by any means of communication by which all members participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. The authority may hold additional meetings as it determines are necessary or appropriate. Each meeting of the authority must be open to the public as provided for in Title 2, chapter 3, part 2.

(3) Each member is entitled to be paid $50 for each day that the member is engaged in the performance of authority duties plus cost of travel, lodging, and meals as provided in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503.

NEW SECTION. Section 8. Powers of the authority. The authority may:

(1) sue and be sued;

(2) adopt all standards and procedures necessary for the administration of [sections 2 through 19];

(3) request that the board of examiners issue bonds or incur other debt as described in [sections 2 through 19], including the issuance of notes or refunding bonds;

(4) consult with scientific experts and advisors

as needed;

(5) award grants to eligible grantees for costs, including indirect costs, of eligible projects;

(6) invest any funds that are not required for immediate use, subject to any agreements with its bondholders and noteholders, as provided in Title 17, chapter 6, except that all investment income from funds invested by the authority, less the cost for investment, must be deposited in the biomedical research fund to the credit of the authority to be used to carry out the purposes of [sections 2 through 19];

(7) contract in its own name for the investment of funds or any other purposes it considers appropriate to carry out the purposes of [sections 2 through 19];

(8) accept gifts, grants, or loans from a federal agency, an agency or instrumentality of the state, a municipality, or any other source;

(9) enter into contracts or other transactions with a federal agency, an agency or instrumentality of the state, a municipality, a private organization, or any other entity consistent with the exercise of any power under [sections 2 through 19]; and

(10) perform any other acts necessary and convenient to carry out the purposes of [sections 2 through 19].

NEW SECTION. Section 9. Staff of authority.

The authority may employ or contract for any professional staff or consultants necessary. Employment and contracting, other than contracting with the panel of scientific consultants, must be done in consultation with the department of commerce.

NEW SECTION. Section 10. Establishment of standards. (1) The authority shall establish medical and scientific accountability standards applicable to grant applications similar to standards in place from time to time for research funded by the NIH, with modifications to adapt to the mission and objectives of the authority, to ensure that grant-funded research is conducted safely and ethically.

(2) The authority shall establish standards for grant applications, including minimum thresholds for sending grant applications for external review by the panel of scientific consultants as provided in [section 12].

(3) In addition, the authority shall establish standards requiring all grant awards to be subject to intellectual property agreements that balance the opportunity of the state of Montana to benefit from the patents, royalties, and licenses that result from research, therapy development, and clinical trials with the need to assure that essential medical research is not unreasonably hindered by the intellectual property agreements.

NEW SECTION. Section 11. Panel of scientific consultants. The peer review described in [section 12] must be conducted by a panel of six to twelve eminent research scientists selected from time to time by the authority, who must be based outside of the state of Montana and who have no ties to or collaborations with investigators working at eligible grantee organizations. Members of the panel of scientific consultants must be demonstrated leaders in biomedical research with active research programs at top-ranked universities, research institutions, medical schools or hospitals. Qualifications of panel members may include a strong track record in producing highly cited peer-reviewed publications, membership in the National Academy of Sciences, receipt of national or international scientific awards, past service on peer-review panels or national advisory committees, and expertise in brain diseases, brain injuries, mental illness or other eligible projects described in [section 5(1)]. In any panel of scientific consultants the authority convenes, at least two members should have experience in successfully introducing new disease therapies to clinical practice.

NEW SECTION. Section 12. Peer review.

(1) Peer review must take one of two forms, depending on whether the grant application requests funds for eligible projects described under [section 5(1)] or [section 5(2)]:

(a) Grant applications for eligible projects described under [section 5(1)] must be for projects that were submitted to national funding agencies and reviewed by expert scientific panels but did not rank sufficiently high to receive funding from the national funding agency or agencies. Grant applications for eligible projects described under [section 5(1)] must be accompanied by a summary statement resulting from peer review of the research proposal conducted by a study section of the NIH or comparative deliberative body. Summary statements may be dated up to 18 months prior to the submission of the grant application to the authority. The authority shall include the accompanying summary statement when submitting grant applications to the panel of scientific consultants for peer review.

(b) Grant applications for eligible projects described under [section 5(2)] do not need to have been submitted to national funding agencies for peer review, but must be submitted by the authority to an appropriate panel of scientific consultants.

(2) At least two times each year, the authority shall convene an appropriate panel of scientific consultants to review applications and recommend priority rankings.

(a) With respect to applications for eligible projects described under [section 5(1)], priority rankings shall be based on factors including innovation, demonstrated ability of the principal investigator and team or the fellowship candidate and mentor, project relevance, priority rankings and scores resulting from review by the national funding agency or agencies and relevance to the development of disease therapies.

(b) With respect to applications for eligible projects described under [section 5(2)], applications of equivalent merit, as determined by the panel of scientific consultants, shall receive priority to the extent that they provide higher proportions of non-state matching fund amounts.

(3) The priority rankings assigned by the panel of scientific consultants must be provided to the authority for final funding determinations. The recommendations of the panel of scientific consultants are not determinative, but must be taken into account by the authority in making grant award determinations, as described in [section 13].

NEW SECTION. Section 13. Evaluation of grant applications by the authority. The authority shall evaluate grant applications for grant funding considering the following factors:

(1) the priority ranking assigned to the application by the panel of scientific consultants, as described in [section 12];

(2) the financial, managerial, and technical ability of the applicant to manage the grant and conduct the proposed research;

(3) the total amount of grant funds available in the grant allocation account in the biomedical research fund;

(4) whether and to what extent the applicant has non-state matching funds available to leverage grant funds;

(5) the total amount requested in other applications that have been received or that are likely to be received; and

(6) any other criteria that the authority determines appropriate, considering the purposes of [sections 2 through 19].

NEW SECTION. Section 14. Biennial audit and annual report.

(1) The authority's books and records must be independently audited at least once each biennium, by or at the direction of the legislative auditor. The costs of the audit must be paid from the authority's funds.

(2) By September 30 of each year, the authority shall issue an annual report to the public describing its activities for the preceding fiscal year. Each annual report must include

(a) for the prior fiscal year, the number and dollar amounts of research grants awarded, the grantees, and the authority's administrative expenses;

(b) a summary of research findings, including promising new research areas;

(c) an assessment of the relationship between the authority's grants and the overall strategy of its research program; and

(d) a discussion of the authority's strategic research and financial plans.

NEW SECTION. Section 15. Creation of debt. The people of Montana, through the enactment of this law by a majority of the electors voting on the question, authorizes the creation of state debt in a cumulative amount not to exceed $200 million, over a period of 10 years, in principal amount of general obligation bonds issued as provided in [section 16], not including any refunding obligations issued pursuant to [section 17], for the purposes set forth in [sections 2 through 19].

NEW SECTION. Section 16. Issuance of bonds—allocation of proceeds. (1) The authority shall determine, from time to time, whether it is necessary or desirable to issue bonds authorized by [section 15] for the purposes set forth in [sections 2 through 19] and, if so, the authority shall make a written request to the board of examiners to issue bonds, which request must include the principal amount of bonds to be issued. The total amount of bonds authorized to be issued in any fiscal year must not exceed $20 million, exclusive of any refunding bonds issued pursuant to [section 17] or bond, grant or revenue anticipation notes issued as provided in [section 18]; except that, if less than this amount of bonds is issued in any fiscal year, the remaining authorized but unissued amount may be carried over to one or more subsequent fiscal years up to a period of 10 full fiscal years, concluding with the fiscal year ending June 30, 2027.

(2) Upon receiving the written request of the authority, the board of examiners shall issue and sell bonds of the state in the requested amount. The bonds are general obligations to which the full faith, credit, and taxing powers of the state are pledged for payment of the principal and interest. The bonds must be sold and issued as provided by Title 17, chapter 5, part 8 and other applicable provisions of Title 17, Chapter 5, if any, except that each series of bonds may have a term of up to 40 years.

(3) The proceeds of the bonds are allocated to the biomedical research fund and applied as provided in [section 19]. The proceeds must be available to the authority and may be used for the purposes authorized in this part without further budgetary authorization.

NEW SECTION. Section 17. Refunding bonds.

Upon request of the authority to the board of examiners, for so long as any of the bonds issued under [section 16] are outstanding, refunding bonds may be issued as provided in Title 17, chapter 5, parts 3 and 8, and other applicable provisions of Title 17, chapter 5, if any. Refunding bonds do not count against the $200 million limit set forth in [section 15]. Refunding bonds issued under this section exclude bonds issued to refund bond, grant or revenue anticipation notes.

NEW SECTION. Section 18. Bond, grant or revenue anticipation notes. Upon request of the authority to the board of examiners, bond, grant or revenue anticipation notes may be issued as provided in 17-5-805. Bond, grant or revenue anticipation notes do not count against the $200 million limit set forth in [section 15].

NEW SECTION. Section 19. Biomedical research fund—uses of funds. (1) There is established outside the state treasury a separate account designated as the biomedical research fund. There are established in the biomedical research fund as subaccounts a grant allocation account, an administration account, and a costs of issuance account.

(2) There must be credited to:

(a) The grant allocation account:

(i) The net proceeds of bonds other than refunding bonds, less any proceeds deposited to the administration account as provided in subsection (b);

(ii) The net proceeds of bond, grant, or revenue anticipation notes, less any proceeds deposited to the administration account as provided in subsection (b); and

(iii) Money appropriated by the legislature;

(b) The administration account, an amount not to exceed 5% of the proceeds of bonds or bond, grant, or revenue anticipation notes; and

(c) The costs of issuance account, proceeds of the bonds or notes or other funds to be used to pay costs of issuance of the bonds or notes.

(3) Funds in the grant allocation account must be used to provide grants to eligible grantees for eligible projects as provided in [sections 2 through 19].

(4) Funds in the administration account must be used to pay administrative costs of the authority, unless they are not needed, in which case such funds may be transferred to the grant allocation account or a debt service account for outstanding bonds or notes.

NEW SECTION. Section 20. Statement of intent to legislature. By approving [this act], the people of the state of Montana intend and request that the legislature enact legislation to implement [this act] at the legislative session immediately following the general election at which [this act] was approved. Such implementing legislation is expected to include providing for reasonable startup costs of the authority to be repaid from bond proceeds upon the issuance of bonds as provided in [section 16] and providing for a statutory appropriation of amounts in the biomedical research fund, including without limitation bond proceeds, to achieve the purpose set forth in [this act].

NEW SECTION. Section 21. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 2, Chapter 15, Part 18. [Sections 2 through 19] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 90.

NEW SECTION. Section 22. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

NEW SECTION. Section 23. Effective date. [This act] is effective January 1, 2017.

NEW SECTION. Section 24. Termination. [Sections 15, 16 and 18] terminate June 30, 2027.

INITIATIVE NO. 181

ARGUMENT FOR I-181

I-181 would provide hope to tens of thousands of Montanans by providing funding for Montana-based research into developing therapies and cures for brain diseases, brain injuries, and mental illnesses. These diseases include Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, Multiple Sclerosis, PTSD, traumatic brain injury, addiction disorders, and depression—to name a few.

With a population of aging citizens and veterans, Montana will be particularly hard hit in the coming decades by currently incurable diseases like Alzheimer's and related dementias, as well as rising rates of PTSD and suicide in the veteran community.

I-181 would establish the Montana Biomedical Research Authority to award grants “for the purpose of promoting the development of therapies and cures” for brain disorders and mental illness. An independent panel of doctors, nurses, and representatives of patient advocacy groups, veterans, and Montana Indian Tribes would award these grants to Montana universities, hospitals, and other organizations qualified to conduct such research.

This initiative will build on world-class research already occurring in Montana on these issues. We will be able to provide more opportunities for our young people interested in science and medicine to stay in Montana and create good-paying jobs.

The research conducted through I-181 will be “made in Montana,” likely providing Montanans earlier access to new treatments and cures and possibly allow them to participate in early clinical trials. This targeted research investment will help bring state of the art diagnostic and treatment techniques to Montana that will help reduce the enormous costs families and the state budget will face in caring for the increasing numbers of Montanans expected to deal with these diseases and disorders in the coming decades.

For example, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control (CDC) estimate that with medical costs and lost work costs, the average suicide costs $1,164,499. In 2014, there were 248 suicides in Montana. If CDC costs are applied to that figure, suicide deaths alone cost Montanans around $2.89 billion over the course of ten years. Similarly, the number of Montanans with Alzheimer's disease is expected to reach 27,000 by 2025. Alzheimers' impacts on Medicaid costs alone are expected to rise from $140 million in 2015 to $214 million in 2025. Brain research in Montana could be critical in stemming those costs.

An investment of $20 million in funding per year for 10 years through general obligation bonds is a powerful commitment to the hundreds of thousands of Montanans—and their loved ones—who suffer from brain diseases and disorders and mental illness.

The proceeds from the sale of these bonds, if appropriated by state legislative sessions, would be used to fund research grants to qualified Montana institutions. Bond interest rates are very low so this is a good time for Montana taxpayers to make this investment. The initiative has been drafted with the assistance and advice of lawyers of Dorsey Whitney, L.L.P of Missoula, MT.

We believe ensuring robust research for the sake of our children, grandchildren, our seniors and our veterans is both a responsibility and a Montana value.

INITIATIVE NO. 181

ARGUMENT AGAINST I-181

We urge you to vote no on Initiative 181. Initiative 181 would indebt the taxpayers of Montana in the amount of 200 million dollars with a payback of over 325 million dollars. While the promoters of the initiative promise economic benefit from borrowing against future income, funding research by creating debt is not a wise use of taxpayers' dollars.

Initiative 181 allows an appointed board to request the sale of State bonds, deposit the money in an account outside the state treasury, and issue grants for research projects that have failed to receive funding from conventional sources. It also allows the appointed commission to provide grants to medical organizations to build facilities and purchase equipment. This will create winners and losers inside the medical service community. Some providers will receive state money to improve services while their competitors will not.

Initiative 181 is bad policy because it creates and funds a new program without considering the impacts the cost of this program will have on existing obligations of the State. The passage of I-181 will reduce the upcoming legislature and future legislatures' ability to fund the increasing costs of existing programs like K-12 school funding, health care for low income Montanans, new infrastructure projects and a host of other existing programs.

Here are some of the many reasons to vote NO on I-181:

- It allows voters to create a new spending program without providing a revenue source to fund the program.
- It circumvents the current legislative process that prioritizes State spending.
- Ongoing operational programs like those funded by I-181 should be funded through the current appropriation process so they can be balanced with the other needs and obligations of the State.
- It has the potential to stop bonding for infrastructure projects now and in the future.
- Once the program is started there is no legislative oversight to insure the borrowed money is used wisely.
- Opportunities for public input into decisions of the Biomedical Authority, that has oversight over the program, are limited because the Authority can meet by electronic conference.
- Borrowing money to fund research projects that have a low probability of succeeding is not good policy.
- Placing State-generated money directly into a fund outside the State Treasury with no accountability could be unconstitutional.
- The creation of State debt should be reserved for spending on projects that create hard assets that are owned by the taxpayers.
- If the debt is paid back over 20 years the cost to taxpayers could exceed 325 million dollars; payback over 40 years will be much higher.

For these and many other reasons we urge you to vote NO on I-181 when you cast your ballot this fall.

INITIATIVE NO. 181

PROPONENTS' REBUTTAL OF ARGUMENT AGAINST I-181

The opponents argue that it is not a wise decision to utilize debt financing of $200 million to invest in brain research. That argument ignores the staggering financial challenge that brain conditions pose to Montana tax payers. Montana Medicaid paid $140 million on Alzheimer's alone in 2015. Over the course of the ten years covered in this initiative, a flat rate of spending would mean that Montana Medicaid would spend $1.4 billion dollars during this time period. However by 2025, the Montana Medicaid spending is expected to be $214 million per year. The investment in Montana-based brain research could be an essential tool to help offset those overwhelming long-term costs.

The opponents argue that the funding is unfair because not every medical research organization will receive grant awards. The opponents are correct that the standard for funding from these grants will be high. It will be a competitive process that will reward innovation and ensure that Montanans affected by brain diseases and disorders will have access to high quality care facilities with cutting edge expertise.

The opponents state that Initiative 181 is bad policy because it creates and funds a new program without considering the impacts the cost of this program will have on existing obligations of the State. Again, the opponents ignore the massive expenditures that the State of Montana is already spending on brain condition treatment. Brain research is Montana's best tool to try and avert staggering long-term costs. Initiative 181 puts that tool in motion.

OPPONENTS' REBUTTAL OF ARGUMENT FOR I-181

The proponents of I-181 say that implementation of the initiative would provide hope to tens of thousands of Montanans. What they don't say is that the types of research projects that will be funded with the proposed borrowed money do not succeed very often. Analysis of success of various research projects indicates that they fail many times more than they succeed. That is to be expected with research. For example, according to a study published in Alzheimer's Research and Therapy, over 99% of the Alzheimer drug trials in the last ten years have failed. Failure rates in cancer treatment drugs are about 80%. Finding cures to any disease is not easy, and a great number of attempts fail. Finding cures to diseases that involve mental issues is even more difficult.

For this reason alone borrowing money to fund research and placing it in the hands of an appointed board that is not subject to state oversight should not be approved. Research funding should be done with available revenues if the Legislature believes such funding is a wise use of taxpayer dollars. The Legislature should only fund new programs after it weighs the benefits of those programs against the benefits of existing programs the State is already committed to fund. Programs like schools, health care for low income people, incarceration of criminals, and taking care of infrastructure in which the taxpayers have already invested money.

INITIATIVE NO. 182

A LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

I-182 renames the Montana Marijuana Act to the Montana Medical Marijuana Act and amends the Act. I-182 allows a single treating physician to certify medical marijuana for a patient diagnosed with chronic pain and includes post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) as a “debilitating medical condition” for which a physician may certify medical marijuana. Licensing requirements, fees and prohibitions are detailed for medical marijuana dispensaries and testing laboratories. I-182 repeals the limit of three patients for each licensed provider, and allows providers to hire employees to cultivate, dispense, and transport medical marijuana. I-182 repeals the requirement that physicians who provide certifications for 25 or more patients annually be referred to the board of medical examiners. I-182 removes the authority of law enforcement to conduct unannounced inspections of medical marijuana facilities, and requires annual inspections by the State.

(c) an attestation that the information provided in the written certification and accompanying statements is true and correct.

(4) If the written certification states that marijuana should be used for less than 1 year, the department shall issue a registry identification card that is valid for the period specified in the written certification."

(1) (a) Except for hospices and residential care facilities that allow the use of marijuana as provided in 50-46-320, a health care facility as defined in 50-5-101 shall take the following measures when a patient who is a registered cardholder has marijuana in the patient's possession upon admission to the health care facility:

(i) require the patient to remove the marijuana from the premises before the patient is admitted if the patient is able to do so; or

(ii) make a reasonable effort to contact the patient's provider, marijuana-infused products provider, court-appointed guardian, or ~~person~~ individual with a power of attorney, if any.

INITIATIVE NO. 182

ARGUMENT FOR I-182

Montana Voters,

I'm Katie Mazurek. Last February, just days after launching my family law practice, I was diagnosed with stage 3 breast cancer. To stop the cancer, I began chemotherapy treatments that take a tremendous physical and mental toll on me. My doctor recommended I use medical marijuana to deal with the side effects of the chemo. I had never used marijuana before but it is far less scary to me than the opiate pain medication I'm prescribed. It improves my quality of life and enables me to be there for my husband and my kids. I'm in the fight of my life and I need every tool possible to win. Please vote YES on I-182 to ensure patients like me have safe, legal access to their medicine.

Montana Voters,

I'm Bob Ream. In May, at the age of 79, I was diagnosed with stage 4 metastatic pancreatic cancer and began chemotherapy, which I will continue until it no longer is effective at holding the cancer at bay. I have had considerable sleep issues in recent years that only increased with my cancer diagnosis. My oncologist prescribed medical marijuana to help me sleep. It has enabled me to sleep better with less debilitating side effects than my previous medications. It is not possible to fight cancer and endure chemotherapy without sleep. I am grateful this medical option was available to me.

Montana Voters,

I'm Jeff Krauss, former three term Mayor of Bozeman and current commissioner. Katie and Bob's stories are not unusual; we heard many similar success stories from seriously ill people as Bozeman researched our response to the overwhelming vote in favor of legal medical marijuana in 2004. We learned from our efforts that we can make medical marijuana work for those in need and also establish controls on how and where it's sold.

We ask Montana voters to join us in supporting I-182. Montana voters overwhelmingly approved medical marijuana at the ballot in 2004 with 64% support, but the Montana Legislature repealed the act and replaced it with SB 423. The new law, which goes into effect this year, is unworkable for patients and providers.

SB 423 limits providers to three patients, eliminating access to medicine for more than 12,000 Montanans who need it and making criminals out of sick and dying people desperate to ease their pain and curb their symptoms. I-182 fixes the mess created by SB 423, provides a responsible medical marijuana law that ensures safe and legal access for patients, and requires accountability for all concerned by:

- Requiring providers to obtain licenses and receive unannounced yearly inspections;
- Allowing for product testing to ensure safety, consistency, and accurate dosages;
- Providing access to veterans and other patients diagnosed with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD);
- Removing the three person patient limit for providers; and
- Creating licensing fees to pay for the administration of the new law.

Vote YES on I-182 for a responsible, accountable medical marijuana program.

INITIATIVE NO. 182

ARGUMENT AGAINST I-182

If I-182 passes many of the restrictions put in place by the 2011 Montana Legislature to reduce rampant abuse of the 2004 "Medical Marijuana Act" will be eliminated.

In March of 2009 there were 736 "Medical Marijuana" card holders and 233 marijuana providers in Montana. By May of 2011 those numbers exploded to 31,522 card holders and 4,650 providers. Marijuana shops and grow operations were sprouting up all over the state placing the safety of our communities at risk. It was clear that voters were not getting what they voted for in 2004 when I-148 the "Medical Marijuana Act" was passed.

What voters in Montana supported is established by the Voter Information Pamphlet (VIP) argument in support of the original 2004 Initiative, I-148. The first sentence of that VIP which states "This initiative would allow the production, possession and use of marijuana by patients with debilitating medical conditions." presented a very limited scope of purpose for the original initiative.

The proponents' argument in the 2004 VIP also stated I-148 would "allow patients to grow their own personal supply of marijuana so that they will no longer have to buy marijuana from the criminal market."

The people didn't vote to create a marijuana industry but that's what was being put into place.

Significant abuse by physicians of the "Medical Marijuana Act" was a problem. Some physicians recommended cards for chronic pain without using relevant and necessary diagnostic tests to verify chronic pain. In May of 2011 of the 31,522 card holders 23,000 were issued for chronic pain.

Further questionable behavior of some physicians was revealed in July 2011 when it was reported that just one physician was responsible for issuing at least 6,860 cards.

While abuses were greatly reduced by action taken during the 2011 legislative session, many abuses continue due to the MONTANA CANNABIS INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION working through the courts to block portions of the restrictions put in place by the Legislature. If I-182 passes abuses will continue. As of May 2016 of the 13,288 card holders, 8,288 have been issued for severe chronic pain. Four physicians have issued approximately 9,824 or 74% of the total 13,288 cards.

It's clear I-182 is designed to establish a "marijuana industry" as evidenced by Section 4 which amends Section 50-46-302 of current Montana law to redefine person as "an individual, partnership, association, company, corporation, limited liability company, or organization." These businesses would then be granted licenses to be in the marijuana business. Marijuana businesses could also have employees but age, background or other qualifications are not defined.

The voters have shown support for the restrictions the Legislature has enacted. In 2012 the marijuana industry tried to remove those restrictions with IR-124 but failed when 57% of the voters approved the action the Legislature had taken. Let's stop this new attempt to remove those restrictions that have been proven effective.

Vote NO on I-182 to ensure the abuses of "Medical Marijuana" do not return and to keep marijuana from becoming corporate industry.

INITIATIVE NO. 182

PROPONENTS' REBUTTAL OF ARGUMENT AGAINST I-182

It seems opponents to I-182 lack common sense and compassion when it comes to caring for the needs of Montanans. Opponents know Montana legislators intentionally crafted SB 423 with unworkable amendments to a voter supported initiative. Amendments that hurt important and vulnerable populations of Montana's people: our citizens with chronic pain, cancer and other debilitating illnesses including our veterans with PTSD.

Fellow Montanans with your vote for I-182 - a new medical marijuana program that is responsible and accountable - these mistakes will be corrected.

I-182 creates a workable and accountable medical marijuana program by:

- Removing the impractical three patient limit for providers.
- Requiring annual and unannounced inspections performed by the Montana Health Department.
- Adding PTSD to the list of debilitating illnesses ensuring that Montana veterans have access to medicine.
- Requiring licensing fees for a fiscally responsible program.

Through false arguments and misinformation opponents seek to harm sick Montanans. There are over 12,000 patients in Montana that are vulnerable and struggling to merely survive during the most trying time in their lives. We know Montanans are smart enough to help those in need and address any past abuses. Voters understand that veterans with PTSD, people with debilitating illnesses and cancer patients unable to eat and lead a normal life need access to their medicine. Vote YES on I-182 to give patients a voice, ensure that no Montanan is left behind when they need care the most, and to create a workable, accountable and responsible medical marijuana program.

OPPONENTS' REBUTTAL OF ARGUMENT FOR I-182

Under current law created by SB423 the individuals mentioned in the "Argument for I-182" have access to "medical marijuana". They can grow their own marijuana or obtain marijuana from a registered provider. They are however restricted from obtaining marijuana from large "marijuana businesses".

Voters seeing abuses rampant with the 2004 initiative looked to the Legislature to take action. Legislative action was taken with SB423. In 2012 the voters showed support of that action with 57% of the voters approving IR-124 leaving SB423 in place.

I-182 proponents claim that SB423 created a mess. The truth is that SB423 is working and abuse of "medical marijuana" has greatly been reduced. Furthermore, the Montana Supreme Court has recently ruled in favor of SB423 specifically upholding the 25-patient physician review provision and three-patient limit stating that "the restrictions are rationally related to the Legislature's goals in keeping marijuana away from large-scale manufacturing operations that may attract drug traffickers."

I-182 doesn't provide adequate protection from illegal drug activity. Supporters of I-182 state the initiative will be "Requiring providers to obtain licenses and receive unannounced yearly inspections;" the initiative actually reads "The department (DPHHS) may conduct unannounced inspections." Not must or shall but may. Even more troubling I-182 changes current "medical marijuana" law specifically eliminating state or local law enforcement agencies from unannounced visits. SB423 provided for unannounced visits by local law enforcement because our police and sheriffs are those most likely to be aware of illegal activity.

Vote NO on I-182!
